02/14/2008	35	MINUTES OF IN CHAMBERS ORDER by Judge George H. King : This matter is before us on defendant's unauthorized telephonic request to the clerk to advance the time for the Daubert hearing currently set for Thursday, February 21, 2008. Mr. Diamond seems to have considered everyone's convenience in his request to advance such hearing to February 14, 2008 on one days notice except for the court's convenience and availability. We are disappointed with counsel's apparent insensitivity to the court's calendar and commitments. This request is DENIED without prejudice. Mr. Diamond claims that Dr. Nair is unavailable on February 21, 2008. If that is ultimately the case despite every reasonable effort having been made to make him available, we cannot, and do not, expect Mr. Diamond to do the impossible. We only direct that he attempt every reasonable means to cause Dr. Nair to rearrange his calendar to be able to appear on Thursday, February 21, 2008. In the event that despite such efforts Dr. Nair is unavailable, we will discuss potential alternative times for the Daubert hearing on Dr. Nair's proposed testimony with counsel at the status conference currently set on Tuesday, February 19, 2008 at 11:00 a.m. In the meantime, we expect counsel to fully comply with our orders in meeting and conferring over the long weekend and to deliver to the court's chambers by no later than 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, February 19, 2008 the filings and lodgings that we specifically ordered in open court at our last status conference on Tuesday, February 12, 2008. As in all matters, we expect counsel to act in a demonstrably diligent way. IT IS SO ORDERED. (es) (Entered: 02/14/2008)
