Beyond law blogs.

Â Â Image from Library of Congress's website.Â Anne Reed invited me and four other blawgers to list five of our favorite non-law blogs. she was tagged by another blawger for such a list, but I end my link of the chain letterÂ here, never having sent out such messages before. Instead of listing just five blogs, I list one set of blogs that are far removed from the law, and another set that deals with public policy and legal issues from outside the lawyering realm. Â In any event, my favorite reading material usually is beyond blogs, as listed here. Now for the lists: Â FIVE NON-LAW BLOGS NOT INVOLVING PUBLIC POLICY- Cloud Hands- Conflict Zen- Happy as a Fat Rat in a Cheese Factory- Michio Kaku- Ocean ShamanÂ FIVE MORE NON-LAW BLOGS- Index on Censorship- PETA Files- Photography is Not a Crime- Prison Pete- Real Cost of PrisonsÂ What are your favorite non-law blogs?Â Jon Katz.Â

Thanks for including my blog in your list of favorites. And thanks for introducing me to a few blogs I can see I'm going to be spending some time with over coffee this morning!
