

Tuesday, September 30, 2008

We are closed today, for the Jewish New Year.

Â Today is the Jewish New Year/Rosh Hashanah 5769, which I celebrate every year. Therefore, our law firm will be closed today, and will reopen on October 1, 2008, to serve you.Â Â L'shana tova/happy new year. Jon Katz.

Posted by Jon Katz in Jon's news & views at 00:00

David Wasserman was my attorney in the high profile case against me back a few years ago...he and Larry Walters both...David was an exceptional man, leader, and patriot for all americans. I just learned of his suicide this morning from a Las Vegas friend, and must say it's very heartbreaking. If not for this man and his strong beliefs in the first ammendment, I would most likely have served time for my adult website in Polk County. I owe David ALOT, and will never forget the bold statement he made for me, and with me...we worked as a team and that is exactly how I will remember David. I can't find funeral arrangements anywhere - If you have them, could you please forward them.

Sincerely

Tammy Robinson

Polk County Florida Vs. Tammy Robinson Case.

Anonymous on Sep 30 2008, 09:40

Thanks, Tammy, for your message, which replies to my blog entry from the day before I posted this one. I have answered Tammy's inquiry by private email.

Anonymous on Oct 1 2008, 19:21