Underdog readers: What's on your mind?

Dear Underdog readers: Thanks for your visits to Underdog. Our readership has been constantly increasing, according to our site statistics software. Some of you give feedback in the courthouse, and others through e-mail and postings to our comments section. Please keep your feedback coming. When the feeling moves you, please post a comment to our blog, or leave me an e-mail at jon@markskatz.com. Today's blog entry is an open thread to post comments on anything that has or has not been covered by Underdog. Have a great weekend. Jon Katz.
