CT Post update: Here is our published photo.

Camera image from U.S. Geological Survey website.Â Â Â This is a brief update to ourÂ June 17, 2007Â blog entryÂ on theÂ Connecticut Post's coverage ofÂ our law firm.Â Subsequently, we obtained the newspaper's permission to upload the print version of the article, which is hereÂ and continues here. Included is a joint photoÂ of me and my law partner Jay Marks, the first one taken in many years. We are overdue to take and upload more photos of us and our staff to our website.Â Jon Katz.
